- EPOS will list the programme on EPOS Website under the non-EPOS event section and create a hyperlink to the course organisers website
- EPOS will not consider an endorsement request from industry
- The timetable of the course needs to include the names of the Faculty attending the course.
- The educational aims of the course need to be firmly stated.
- They must state whom the course is intended for.
- A delegate from the EPOS Board should attend the course to assess the course. The assessor will be responsible for evaluating the educational component of the course.
- It is expected that the course will pay for the EPOS delegate to attend the course but the delegate may well be a Member of Faculty and, if so, the course will not incur additional costs.
- All these requirements must be agreed before the EPOS Board can approve a course.
- The purpose of the evaluation is to ensure that the course meets the high educational standard of EPOS.
